

Our Poster Contest is Back!

Celebrate your Creativity for Children's Book Week May 10-16

There's no special form to use, simply draw a poster following the theme "Reading makes me..." and adding any word or phrase to complete that sentence. Then illustrate that idea.

Rules:

- Posters must be hand-drawn (no computer or adult help!)
- Must be on white 8 1/2 by 11 paper
- May be drawn in full color or in black & white
- Must include the phrase created by the entrant that begins, "Reading makes me..."
- The name, age, school and grade, phone number, address, and email of the person creating the poster must be written on the back of the poster (we would recommend this be in pencil so that it does not bleed through to the other side)
- Entries (one per child) must be submitted to Village Books by 9:00pm on Friday, April 9 (winners will be contacted Friday, April 30th)

Entries will be reviewed by a panel of judges and scored on creativity and how well they illustrate the phrase the entrant has created.

One (1) winner will be chosen from each of the following groups:

Preschool – 1st / 2nd-3rd / 4th-5th / 6th-8th

Winning entries will be printed, in full color, and distributed to area schools and libraries. Each winner will also receive a framed copy of his or her poster at a special celebration on Saturday, May 16 at 2:00pm - in conjunction with the Pam Flowers event!
